Low Wray Campsite is a National Trust property which occupies one of the finest locations in the Lake District, with access to the shores of Lake Windermere and Wray Castle. The site offers a wide-range of camping options including traditional pitches with waterfront, lake, meadow or woodland views, or camping pods, safari tents and space for campervans. Facilities at the site include a shop, three toilet and shower blocks, laundry facilities, washing-up areas, a children's adventure playground. Canoes, rowing boats, sit-on kayaks and paddleboards are also available to hire as well as mountain bikes. In high season, wood-fired pizzas are available on certain nights.

The application seeks to allow the sale of alcohol from the campsite shop and an outside (mobile) catering unit in part of the camp site and to allow the provision of live and recorded music on a limited basis in the vicinity of the of the reception building and the pizza oven.

Please note that there are four plans associated with this application. The first shows the full extent of the campsite and the area to be licensed. The second shows (within the licensed area) the location of the building and mobile unit from which it is intended alcohol will be sold and (in yellow) the area to be licensed for regulated entertainment. The final two plans show the layout of the building and mobile unit to be licensed for the sale of alcohol.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, please state the number expected to attend.

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

The relevant mandatory conditions shall apply to the licence.

The sale of alcohol shall only take place from the buildings shown on the approved plans and identified as “Reception Building and Campsite Shop” and “Outside Catering Unit”. The consumption of alcohol in those buildings shall not be permitted.

Alcohol may only be sold or supplied to persons staying at the camp site, their bona fide guests and members of staff.

Regulated entertainment shall only be provided within the area shown in yellow on the approved plans and only for the purpose of entertaining persons staying at the camp site and their bona fide guests.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

The premises shall keep a written record of any occasion when the sale of alcohol is refused and the reason for that refusal.

c) Public safety

The applicant does not consider that this application gives rise to any issues of public safety that are not already addressed by other regulations (such as the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order) and does not propose any specific conditions with regard to this licensing objective.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise from both live and recorded music shall be monitored and controlled so as to ensure that no public nuisance is caused to any third party and that noise from any music entertainment provided at the premises shall be no louder than to be barely audible at the site boundary so that it shall be inaudible inside any residential property in the locality.

e) The protection of children from harm

The premises will operate a “Challenge 25” policy whereby any person attempting to buy alcohol who appears to be under the age of 25 will be required to produce a photographic proof of age in one or other of the forms specified by the mandatory conditions, before being sold or supplied with alcohol.

All staff involved in the sale of alcohol shall receive training regarding restricted sales (to persons who are under age or who are drunk) and advice on spotting proxy sales.

 15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
